

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A substituted (meth)acrylic copolymer leveling agent is useful in producing a ferroelectric polymer film that is especially suitable for use in a data processing device. Also disclosed is a casting composition which includes the leveling agent, a film stack, and a data processing device comprising a ferroelectric film produced using the leveling agent.